

Summer of 2020

Grade 6 Summer Reading List

For Social Studies - choose one (1) book only and complete the 2 page report sheet enclosed. I have included choices of differing interests and reading levels. Check them out online first to decide which one interests you.

(easy reading)

Athens is Saved by Stewart Ross

7 Wonders of the World by Mary Koffman

(medium reading)

The Eyes of Pharaoh by Chris Eboch

Detectives in Togas by Henry Winterfeld

(challenge reading)

Song of Achilles by Madeline Miller

The Scribes from Alexandria by Caroline Lawrence

Grade 7 Summer Reading List

For Social Studies - choose one (1) book only and complete the 2 page report sheet enclosed. I have included choices of differing interests and reading levels. Check them out online first to decide which one interests you.

(easy reading)

Liberty's Son by Paul B Thompson

World's Apart by Kathleen Karr

(medium reading)

Chains by Laurie Halse Anderson

The Arrow over the Door by Joseph Bruchac

(Challenge reading)

My Brother Sam is Dead by James L. and Christopher Collier

The Sign of the Beaver by Elizabeth George Speare

Grade 8 Summer Reading List

For Social Studies - choose one (1) book only and complete the 2 page report sheet enclosed. I have included choices of differing interests and reading levels. Check them out online first to decide which one interests you.

Girls Think of Everything: Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women By Catherine Thimmesh

Nonfiction

Brown Girl Dreaming

By Jacqueline Woodson

poetry

Nothing But the Truth

By Avi

docudrama

Name _____ Grade _____

Jr. High Social Studies Summer Reading Book Report Form

Book Title _____

Author _____

Setting (where) _____

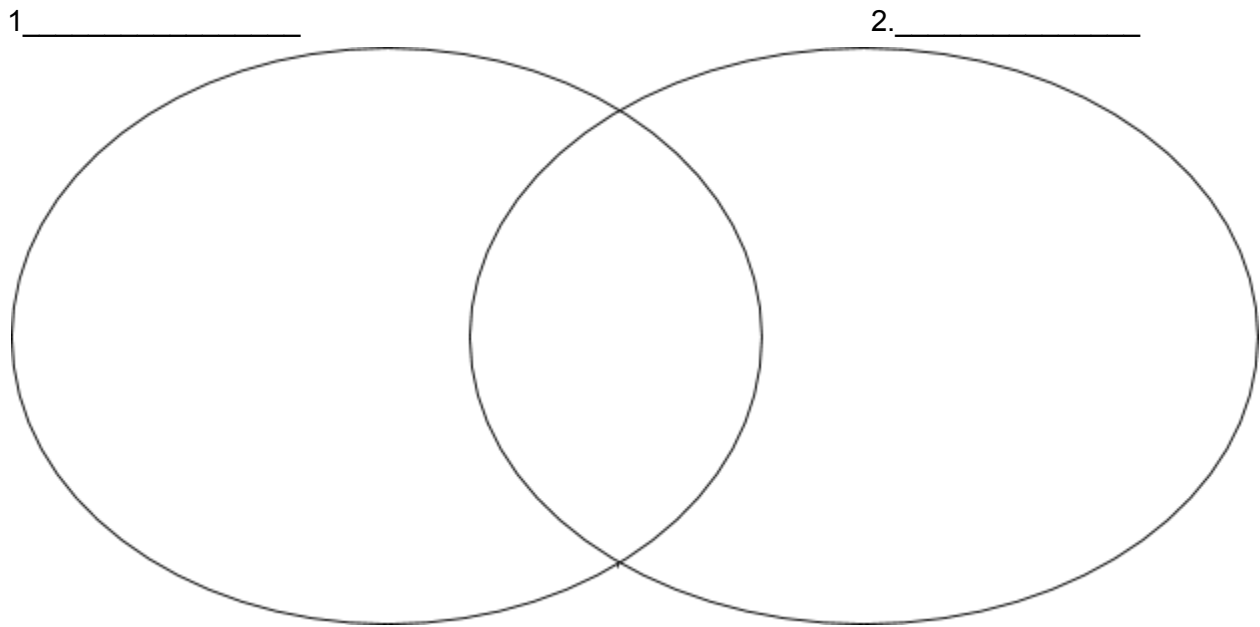

(when) _____

Main Characters _____

Place this story in history. Discuss the key historical references in the book. Could the events really have happened? (6-8 sentences)

Write a brief summary of the story (8-10 sentences)

Compare 2 characters from the book. Fill in 12 facts in the Venn diagram.

Identify 10 new words you've learned from this book and define them below.